

BERCHTOLD Welcomes Matthew Weismiller

MATTHEW W. WEISMILLER has been named President of BERCHTOLD Corporation, located in Charleston, S.C. Weismiller has more than 20 years of experience in the medical device industry, most recently as a senior executive at Hill-Rom Holdings.

In his tenure at Hill-Rom, Weismiller served in several key executive roles, including leadership of the information technology division, global R&D, and global marketing. A noted innovator, Weismiller is recognized as a key contributor in establishing Hill-Rom as a market leader in acute care, particularly in the intensive care and information technology sectors.

“I am both honored and excited to join the team at BERCHTOLD,” Weismiller said, “and I look forward to building upon the strong reputation for innovation and service that BERCHTOLD has built as a leader in operating room systems and technology.”
